

CLINICAL SHEET DERMATOLOGY AND VENEREOLGY

Department

General Medicine

Specific treatment service provided

The Dermatologic Clinic deals with the diagnosis and treatment of all diseases that affect the skin/ that have to do with skin.

As a tertiary referall center other than general dermatology, the Clinic include specialized services including phototherapy, allergological dermatology, autoimmune bullous disease clinic, capillaroscopy, surgical dermatology, dermatologic emergency counseling, skin cancer service (including photodynamic therapy and videodermatoscopy), a specialized clinic for organ transplant recipients, psoriasis, pediatric dermatology and sexually transmitted diseases.

The clinic also carries out research activities with national and international funding particularly on psoriasis, psoriatic arthritis, atopic dermatitis, cutaneous reactions to drugs, autoimmune skin diseases, infections and skin cancers in patients with transplanted organ, and on pediatric dermatology. Clinical trials are also conducted especially of the therapy of psoriasis and atopic dermatitis.

Brief description of the diseases treated:

Clinical activities of particular relevance are the following:

Diagnosis and follow-up of melanoma and other skin cancers, including photodynamic therapy;

Diagnosis and follow-up of allergic contact dermatitis;

Dermatological monitoring of transplanted organ recipients;

Diagnosis and therapy of photodermatoses;

Reference center for dermatologic adverse reactions to drugs;

Reference center for the treatment of psoriasis;

Reference center for the diagnosis, certification and treatment of rare dermatological diseases;

Reference center for the diagnosis and treatment of mastocytosis in childhood and adulthood;

Pediatric dermatology service

Therapeutic approach

Specialist visits general dermatology for outpatients
Specialist visits general dermatology for patients admitted to other units of this hospital
Dermatological first aid' specialist visit
Execution of diathermocoagulation , cryotherapy and CO2 laser therapy
Specialist visits for diagnosis, prevention and treatment of all skin cancers (I and II level)
Specialist visits for the follow-up of patients with melanoma
Skin biopsies
Dermatosurgery interventions
Specialist dermatological visits for phototherapy and photo-diagnosis
Therapy with ultraviolet radiations (A and B, nB and BB, PUVA)
Execution of patch tests and other allergologic tests
Specialist visits of allergological and professional dermatology
Pediatric dermatology' specialist visits
Specialist visits for the diagnosis and treatment of hair and nails' diseases
Specialist visits for the diagnosis and treatment of skin diseases related to vascular system' dysfunction
Execution of skin and periungual capillaroscopy
Specialist visits for the diagnosis and treatment of skin complications related to solid organ transplant recipients
Specialist visits for diagnosis and treatment of psoriasis
Diagnosis and treatment of severe autoimmune diseases

Annual cases

About 50,000 access outpatients per year
About 500 admission inpatients per year

e-mail gestione.clienti@ospedaleuniverona.it www.ospedaleuniverona.it